ABOUT THE RIDE

Overview

This expedition follows the Kali river north from the Kumaon foothills to Dharchula and into the Vyas valley — a high, remote corner of Uttarakhand on the borders of Nepal and Tibet.

The reward is a pair of extraordinary mountains: Om Parvat, where snow settles in a pattern resembling the sacred syllable, and Adi Kailash, reflected in the waters of Parvati Kund.

Expect a mix of good tarmac in the foothills, narrow mountain roads, and rough, unpaved sections in the upper valley. Altitude, weather and permits shape every day of this route.

TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

01 Om Parvat viewpoint
Stand before the snow pattern that gives the mountain its name.

02 Adi Kailash & Parvati Kund
One of the most revered peaks in the Indian Himalaya, reflected in a high lake.

03 Kali river gorge
Ride alongside the river that marks the India–Nepal border.

04 Bhotia border villages
Stay in or visit traditional villages such as Gunji and Nabi.

10 DAYS · RISHIKESH

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 01

Arrive in Rishikesh

Rishikesh 0 290 m

On reaching Rishikesh, check into the hotel. Afterwards, explore Rishikesh and the Ganga Aarti at your own pace. Return to the hotel in the evening for dinner, followed by the briefing for the next day, then enjoy a restful overnight stay.

Stay: Rishikesh
Meals: Dinner
Sightseeing: Ganga Aarti, Laxman Jhula
Note: This is your arrival day in Rishikesh, you should reach to the hotel by yourself.

DAY 02

Rishikesh to Gwaldam

Rishikesh → Gwaldam 240 km 7-9 hrs
2,300 m

Rise early, have a good breakfast and get ready for the ride to Gwaldam. The journey runs through the Garhwal Himalayas into the Kumaon Himalayas, passing three major river confluences — Devprayag, Rudraprayag and Karnaprayag.

Stay: Gwaldam
Meals: Breakfast and Dinner
Sightseeing: Devprayag, Dhari Devi Temple, Rudraprayag, Karnaprayag

DAY 03

Gwaldam to Munsiyari

Gwaldam → Munsiyari 170 km 7-8 hrs
2,500 m

Head up to Munsiyari, the great hill station of the Kumaon region, with stunning views of the Panchachuli peaks. The ride passes through dense deodar forest and the Birthi waterfall. On reaching Munsiyari, check into the hotel; dinner and overnight stay.

Stay: Munsiyari

BEFORE YOU BOOK

Cancellation policy & terms

Cancellation & Refund Policy

Advance payment
The advance amount is non-refundable.

Cancellations by riders
Once 100% of the trip cost has been paid:

- Cancellations made more than 30 days before the start date: we return 50% of the remaining amount.
- Cancellations made more than 15 days before the start date: we return 25% of the remaining amount.
- Cancellations made 0–15 days before the start date: no refund.

The advance amount is non-refundable in every case.

Weather and government restrictions
If unforeseen weather conditions or government restrictions cancel certain activities, we will do our best to provide a feasible alternative. No refund is given for activities cancelled for these reasons.

Cancellation by us
In the unlikely event that we cancel a trip due to unforeseen circumstances, you will receive a full refund of the amount paid, or the option to reschedule.

Terms & Conditions

1. Booking and payment
A non-refundable deposit confirms your booking, and the remaining balance must be paid before the departure date. The deposit amount and the balance due date for each tour are shown on the tour page and confirmed in your booking.

2. Cancellation by the organiser
In the unlikely event of trip cancellation by us due to unforeseen circumstances, participants receive a full refund of the amount paid or the option to reschedule. See also our Cancellation & Refund Policy.

3. Liability and safety

- The organiser is not responsible for any accidents, injuries or loss of personal property during the trip. Travel insurance is highly recommended.
- Participants are responsible for their own safety and must follow all instructions given by the guides and the organising team.
- Please tell us about any medical conditions or dietary restrictions before departure.

4. Changes to the itinerary

- Weather and road conditions in the mountains can be unpredictable, so the itinerary may change.

- We reserve the right to change the schedule, accommodation or activities when necessary for the safety and well-being of participants.
- If weather, road blocks or flight cancellations mean we cannot reach a hotel and extra nights are needed, the extra cost is charged separately.

5. Travel insurance

We strongly recommend that every participant buys travel insurance covering trip cancellation, medical expenses, accidents and emergency evacuation. The organiser is not liable for any financial loss due to lack of insurance.

6. Responsibilities of participants

Participants must be physically fit for mountain conditions, where temperatures can be extreme, and must bring adequate warm clothing and gear as listed in the packing list. Please be punctual and respectful to guides, local people and fellow travellers.

7. Code of conduct

Respect local customs, culture and the environment. Misconduct, harassment or disruptive behaviour towards other participants, guides or local people leads to immediate removal from the trip without a refund.

8. Force majeure

The organiser is not liable for cancellations, delays or changes to the itinerary caused by factors beyond our control, including natural disasters, political unrest or government restrictions.

9. Assumption of risk

Motorcycle travel in the mountains involves risks, including cold weather, slippery surfaces and high-altitude riding. Participation is at your own risk.
